

Miles Lederman

Cell phone: (206) 406-8720 Email: miles.lederman@gmail.com LinkedIn: <http://bit.ly/linkedinmilesled>

Education

University of Washington—Seattle, WA

- Intended Bachelor of Science in Informatics (in progress)
- Intended Bachelor of Arts in Comparative History of Ideas (in progress)

Bellevue College Professional Continuing Education — Bellevue, WA

- UI/UX Design Certificate (in progress)

Activities

WASHPIRG (Washington Peer Interest Research Group)

- Worked on “Save the Bees” Campaign
  - Gathered petitions from both students and faculty
  - Attend bi-monthly meetings
  - Follow up with people who signed petition

Alpha Theta Delta Design Professional Fraternity

- Fall 2019 Rush Chair
- Conduct and participating in design sprints
- Holding professional development talks with industry members

oSTEM (out in STEM) @ UW

- 2019-2020 oSTEM President
- Participating in peer mentorship program between graduate and undergraduate students

McMahon Hall Council

- Assistant Director of Representation
  - Attend both general and executive meetings once a week
  - Hold one-on-one meetings with hall council representatives

RCSA (Residential Community Student Association)

- McMahon Hall Representative for weekly meetings
- Vote on campus policy concerning on-campus housing
- Participate in local student government, such as Associated Students of UW

Skills

Language Skills: Fluent in English and Japanese

Computer Skills: Excel, Word, PowerPoint; Currently pursuing Microsoft Office Specialist Certification

Volunteering

UW Urban Horticulture Farm — Seattle, WA

Farm Maintenance

- Attend bi-monthly volunteer sessions to help weed and water fruits/vegetables used to help the local area.

Second Harvest Japan — Tokyo, Japan (2018)

Feeding the Homeless

- Prepared and distributed crates of food meant to support struggling families and individuals of the greater Tokyo Metropolitan area.